HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upor this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of llostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to over a halfincrease in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immeuse amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sauction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachie derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom. This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and agne and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsin und like diseases, is to the proprictors a source of un-alloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system. giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon tho stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly ndapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the cri-dence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach de-rangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recupe rate the energies of the system, and enable the wother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigora tors that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give n permanent increase of bodily strength. All those persons, to whom we have partieu larly referred above, to wit: aufferers from fever and ague, caused by maluria, dinrihora dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to llos-tetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION .- We caution the public against feits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the Withdrawal of the Military.

We must express our surprise that a gentleman of Mr. Harrison's conservative views, and whose course heretofore in the Legislature has been so commendable, should have allowed himself to present and press with so much carnestness, the resolutions for the immediate withdrawal of federal troops from the seconding States. This is a move in the wrong direction. It is at this time unadvised and injudicious. The President of the United States is the proper person to judge of the troops. He is in possession of information which is probably not accessible to the Kentucky Legislature, and it is exceedingly imprudent at this time to interfere with him. Old Virginia has pursued exactly the right course. She did not request the withdrawal of the Federal troops, but requested the Federal Government and the seceding States to allow matters to remain as they were-all parties avoiding any step calculated to produce an armed conflict. This is the part of prudence. At this time there appears to be a calm in the public mind North and South, and if there is no change in the present attitude of affairs we doubt not that a settlement will be had. We should remember that there are other portions of the country to be effected besides the South. If we desire a settlement, let us avoid anything calculated to produce an excitement in the North. If the public property in the seceding States was abandoned by the Federal Government; if the Federal troops were withdrawn, might it not be followed by such indignation throughout the North as would prevent a settlement and utterly defeat the object of the Washington Conference?

That is just what the disunionists in this State desire, and hence Mr. Harrison should observe that every disunionist in the House favors his proposition. The advocacy of his proposition by the Courier, Yeoman, and George N. Saunders, should arouse his sus picion that he is unintentionally aiming a blow at the cause of the Union. Let things remain as they are. Mr. Buchanan does not intend to harm the secoding States. They know that he does not, and they should not attack the public property during a pending settlement. If they do the consequences will fall upon them.

It is well known that we are opposed to coercion, and our opposition to Mr. Harri son's resolutions are entirely consistent with that position. We honestly believe that the abandonment by the Federal Government of the property of the United States of which it now has possession in the seceding States, would be the deadliest blow which the cause of conservatism could receive. The time has not arrived to determine whether the prop erty of the United States should be given in to the seceding States. Let us trust to the discretion of the President. If the step suggested in Mr. Harrison's resolutions was proper, would not Crittenden or Donglas have longsince suggested it?

Hon. J. R. Underwood.

This venerable statesman addressed the House at great length on yesterday, in refer- robbery. ence to the slavery question. It was the speech of the session, and will long be remembered by all who heard it. It produced a profound impression. The words of wisdom which tell from the "old man eloquent" ought to induce the restless, impatient spirits, who are endeavoring to plunge Kentucky into revolution and civil war, to pause and consider well to what policy they commit our State. Would that the conneils of the nation were filled with such men as Joseph R. Underwood. Under the guidance of such pure and noble statesmen, our beloved country would experience nothing but uninterrupted peace and prosperity.

SLIDELL AT A DISCOUNT.—The Louisiana Convention on Thursday refused, by a vote of 74 to 32, to ignore all State District lines in the appointment of delegates to the Montgomery Convention, thus killing Slidell's pet scheme. The N. O. True Delta is jubilant over the Ex-Senator's defeat, and says:

After this result, Slidell and his man Friday, Benjamin, may as well remain in Washington to give counsel to old Buck in his present predicament. They cannot go to the Montgomery Convention—they are played

We regret that Mr. Harrison felt it to be ris duty to make such an extraordinary movement at this time. We regard it as the very mer; that their priests conducted their reliowest grade of submission. "We had rather gious orgies in the Groves, where they are be a dog, and bay the moon than such a Roman." Nay, we had rather be two dogs, and bark at a constellation of moons. Before we would ever consent to get on our knees to S. C. in this sort of Legging the question style, we would declare the United States Government a nullity at once; beg necessity or propriety of withdrawing the the rebel States to take such of its remains as might please them, and let us, like underlings, dodge about be tween the mighty legs of King Pickens, seeking dishonorable

We are opposed to eoercion. We are for etting the seeeding States alone. At the ame time we are for having and making the victims, the Senator from Jefferson can, no ecceding States let U. S. alone. NEVER, NEVER, NEVER.

[From the Danvillo Tribunc.] Coercion.

The twaddle of the disunionists about eoercion of the secoding States, and the arming going on in those States, are without the lightest foundation. Even the government of Lincoln would think of doing nothing nore than defending the Government when ictually attacked by the seceders and colecting the revenue; while it is notorious that the present administration is scarcely willing to do even this much. And this is called coercion, and loud exclamations made gainst it, as if it were "a raw head and bloody bones." The seceding States are irmed cap-a-pic-soldiers are collecting and marching and countermarching to oppose avading armies of federal troops-threats are made by Virginia and Tennessee and even by Kentucky, that they will never permit federal troops to cross their territories to attack the seeeding States.

What necessity is there for all this gascon ide? When will the general government ever invade a State? For what should she do it? To force it to send its Representa-tives and Senators to Congress? To force it to permit the mails to be carried? To force to permit the Federal Courts to sit? To sk such questions is a sufficient answer to them. If the seceders don't wish to send their Representatives to Congress, let them stay at home—if they don't want a federal ourt, let them do without it-if they don't want the mails to run; but they do cant them, they are but too glad to ge Uncle Sam to work for them at a loss of a sum equal to all the postoffice revenue collected in all the secoding States. They will onbtless be too smart ever to interrupt the the Senator from Jefferson, he hoped the bill good-natured old gentleman as long as he would pass. hooses to bring their mails at his own cost.

How or for what will the government then ever attempt to coerce a State? It is all pre ense-it is all vain fear-it is all coward! bluster and fussification—it is all a fals charge. Defense is called aggression—to resist attack is called making an attack. refuse to give up the Government forts, built at an immense cost by all the States, i called injustice and oppression-to collect the revenues of the government, is called

For our part, we are utterly opposed to var, civil or uncivil-we want no attack made on the seceding States—we believe if "left alone in their glory," they will soon perish in it. We depreeate collision beween the Government and the rebellions States-it is in fact the only thing that can save them from collapse. A collision would be a Godsend to South Carolina & Co. We trust the Government, neither of Mr. Buchman nor Mr. Lincoln will do them so great a avor. Their fiery war spirit will die out, if elt to itself-their coffers are empe nowhey have not the golden sinews of warand they are loading themselves with a publie debt. Nothing can save them from their folly and its consequences but a collision ind an attack on the Federal Government which would enable them to raise the false ry of coercion, and thereby obtain the sym athy and aid of the Border States. trust that Kentneky at least will not be inmbugged by this false and groundless harge of those who are in open rebellion igainst the Government.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ANALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES .- Thore is growing tendency in this age to appropriate the after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalio will become as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born." 70,223 59

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n'orrible 'esdache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecarics hand says hi to the man, "Cau you hease me of an 'cadache?' "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Exceedingly, says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'urdly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'hendache.

The dache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never beneglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomay be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of discases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constitution and other disorders of the howels are onstipation and other disorders of the bowels, as constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæuia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nerrous headache, sometimes coming on and leady in a state of approach. imes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently cound health and prostrating at once the menta and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralyia. For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

Constipation or Costiveness,

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in earelessness, or scdentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precureor and companies of many of the most fatal and danger. companion of many of the most fatal and danger-ous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhæ, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, llysteria, llypochoudriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the disease named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent exis-tence unless the cause is eradicated in an early 5,000 stage. From all these considerations it follows 5,000 that the disorder should receive immediate atten-... 5,000 tion whenover it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephâlic Pills ou the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the hlood, by which this lluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously eaused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-ordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending " from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitu-tions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infeetion, and their health is undermined by it. I'o cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound. Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is com-bined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, Sr. ANTHONY'S FIRE, Rose, or EnvireLas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotenes, Blains and Boils, Temors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Rinoworm, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsapa rilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. While many inferior remedies thrust input the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
